This type of sediment trap is only suitable when the pipe invert is above the crest of the spill-through weir crest, thus avoiding sedimentation within the pipe.

Height of rock filter dam crest should be set such that water does not pond within the stormwater pipe.

The crest of the spill-through weirs should be set such that water does not pond within the stormwater pipe.

The crest of the spill-through weirs should be set such that water does not pond within the stormwater pipe.

The crest of the spill-through weirs should be set such that water does not pond within the stormwater pipe.

The crest of the spill-through weirs should be set such that water does not pond within the stormwater pipe.